OUR LOGO

HOCKLEY MINT

HONEST BRITISH CRAFTSMANSHIP

The new Hockley Mint logo establishes us as a trusted and commercially lead brand. The logo embodies the essence of our heritage and commitment to excellence.

At its core, our icon is a symbol of British craftsmanship and class combined with a stylised precious stone, and even the H and M initials, reflecting the brand's prestigious position as one of Europe's foremost jewellers.

Designed with precision and attention to detail, the Hockley Mint name is presented in a bold, industrial, but delicate typeface, rooted in tradition.

In essence, the Hockley Mint logo is more than just a symbol—it is a testament to the brand's storied legacy, our dedication to British craftsmanship, and our enduring commitment to timeless elegance and class.

OUR LOGO

On the rare occasion we can't use our full colour logo, we can rely on a single colour and mono versions, depending on the background / pattern they are positioned upon. We can also use either of the logos with or without the tagline.

UNION JEWEL

The Union Jewel is our icon, our quality stamp and our brand encompassed in one mark. A simple formula creates this icon, and is created from our initials, a precious gem and the Union flag, which is visualised below:

THE DON'T'S

Don't squash the logo

Don't recolour the logo

Don't use the wrong coloured logo on imagery. Create contrast with your choice on image and logo. More guidance on photography and moving image can be found on p14

RESPONSIVE LOGO

Above is our minimum logo size for our primary logo. If a piece of collateral requires it to be any smaller, we should use our isolated 'Union Jewel' instead.

The 'Union Jewel' should be used whereby we can't feature our full logo, or where we only want to hint at our brand. Examples include on social media, as a favicon or as a sign off on a letterhead.

The Hockley Mint logo should have an exclusion zone equal to (or bigger than) the short edge of the union jewel.

OUR TAGLINE

Our tagline is important, it underpins everything we do.

COLOUR PALETTE

Our new Hockley Green will become synonymous with our brand, and will establish a consistent palette across all of our marketing, web and social output, not to mention packaging and merchandise.

This primary colour is fresh and contemporary, and should be the colour at the centre of everything we do. The Hockley Green is also supported by our secondary palette (next page) which gives a blend of different tones depending on what's required at the time.

THE ARGYLE

The new 'Argyle' pattern is simply a piece of visual interest to heighten a design and help attract the eye. The word 'Argyle' is sometimes used to refer to an individual diamond in the design, but more commonly refers to the overall pattern, which is what inspired this design choice. This can be seen within this vehicle and supporting 'single diamond' (bottom right), which can be used as a means of framing a message within a piece of marketing too.

The pattern should be used sparingly and with very subtle hints within our colour palette.

WHERE LUXURY MEETS LEGACY

Established in 1953 in Birmingham's Jewellery quarter, we value great design and are advocates for responsible mining and manufacturing. We create classic, elegant wedding and engagement rings, and provide an efficient and fast friendly service. This has enabled us to become of Europe's largest Jewellery manufacturers.

PRESENTATION BOX

Our 'union jewel' is our quality stamp, something nobody else can offer, and will also become our hallmark.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Our photography and videography is of the highest importance, and can broadly be broken down into two clear sections.

In these examples we see images that support our 'Honest British Craftsmanship' tagline - ie images showing our heritage, our passion and knowledge. These images should always be real, showing the experience of our jewellers, creases within their hands, the worn elements of tools that have been used time and again and the creation of something beautiful from quite industrial surroundings. We are proud of this background, so want to show it off.

PHOTOGRAPHY

In our extensive array of images, we present our jewellery both in its natural setting and adorned by individuals. We aim to underscore the connection between the skilled hands of our team and the captivating allure of our pieces as they are worn. While our 'in-situ' shots are meticulously directed and maintain a clean, contemporary aesthetic, they consistently showcase each piece as an icon of unparalleled beauty and design. We strive for our jewellery to serve as an aspiration - a symbol of elegance to be cherished and embraced with joy.
